Eligibility for membership in the Rotary Club of Springfield as defined by the By-Laws of the Club

This club shall be composed of adult persons of good character and good reputation, having a high degree of management function or professional designation in their career fields and who are making a difference through leadership in business, the professions, and/or the civic community. Generally, proposed members should have three years or more experience in their career fields to have established their reputation and character. Individuals with less time in their fields may be considered for membership if they have demonstrated extraordinary potential for such leadership. Persons who have retired but who have met the above general qualifications during their active professional years shall be considered eligible for membership.

For clarification of club policy regarding membership eligibility, contact the Membership Committee Chair or the club President. Please return the completed application to the Executive Secretary.
