This Week at Rotary Rotary Opens Opportunities, Jacqueline Howard

Jacqueline's Rotary experience began in January of 1994 when she became a member of a Group Study Exchange (GSE) Team to D-3860 in the Philippines; a six-week experience that she says changed her life and she ultimately decided she wanted to make a difference in the World through Rotary.

Jacque joined Rotary in 2002 after helping to establish and becoming a Charter Member of the Rotary Club of Pulaski County. She served as the first Secretary and second President of the club. While President, she also served as counselor for their club's first exchange student. According to Jacque "Hosting a Rotary Youth Exchange Student made a positive impact in our club, he touched our hearts, and we all witnessed the global impact of Rotary."

Jacque is a Major Donor, Paul Harris Society member, a Benefactor, and Bequest Society member. She strives to make a difference and has a passion for fostering peace and goodwill in the world through acts of kindness, exchange teams, and service projects.
