Dictionary Project Update

A big THANK YOU to Dan Scott for once again organizing our part of the Dictionary Delivery to third graders throughout the schools in Joplin. This is the message we are delivering with the dictionaries for the students.

The idea for The Dictionary Project began in 1992 when Annie Plummer of Savannah, Georgia gave 50 dictionaries to children who attended a school close to her home. In her lifetime she raised the money to buy 17,000 dictionaries for children in Savannah, Georgia. Annie Plummer died December 23, 1999. She inspired the creation of The Dictionary Project, a nonprofit organization.

The project grew tremendously after it was featured in an article on the front page of The Wall Street Journal on March 4, 2002 [1] As a result, individuals and groups from across the United States and the world became involved with The Dictionary Project and sponsored the donation of dictionaries to children in their local schools.

The Daybreak Rotary and the Rotary Club of Joplin believe strongly in the importance of giving dictionaries to every 3rd grader in Joplin because we believe that your education is so critically

30 Days of 30 for $100

As of October 26 - $3000! We have met our goal, but it's not too late to donate! Thank you!

important. Please use these books often and know that even though we couldn't come and give them to you personally this year – please be sure that each one of you is very important to the members of our Rotary clubs. These books are for you to keep but your teacher may want to have you keep them at school until summer vacation. Study hard!

Thank You Joplin Daybreak Rotary!

These books were wonderful and will make a great addition to our Library for the families.

SMILE!

A woman was leaving a cafe with her morning coffee when she noticed a most unusual funeral procession approaching the nearby cemetery. A long black hearse followed by a second long black hearse about 50 feet behind. Behind the second hearse was a solitary woman walking a pit bull on a leash. Behind her were 200 women walking single file.

The woman couldn't stand the curiosity. She respectfully approached the woman walking the dog and said, "I am so sorry for your loss, and I know now is a bad time to disturb you, but I've never seen a funeral like this. Whose funeral is it?"

The woman replied, "Well, that first hearse is for my husband."

"What happened to him?"

The woman replied, "My dog attacked and killed him."

She inquired further, "Well, who is in the second hearse?"

The woman answered, "My mother-in-law. She was trying to help my husband when the dog turned on her."

A poignant and thoughtful moment of silence passed between the two women.

"Can I borrow the dog?"

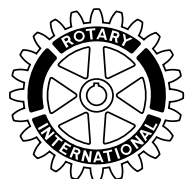

"Get in line!"

Two men were walking home after a Halloween party and decided to take a shortcut through the cemetery just for laughs. Right in the middle of the cemetery they were startled by a tap-tap-tapping noise coming from the misty shadows. Trembling with fear, they found an old man with a hammer and chisel, chipping away at one of the headstones. "Holy cow, Mister," one of them said after catching his breath, "You scared us half to death -- we thought you were a ghost! What are you doing working here so late at night?"

"Those fools!" the old man grumbled.

"They misspelled my name!"
