

While speaking with Pickett, Cockrill asked him if he wanted to tell him what had occurred and was told Pickett did not have a key to the evidence vault and had no authorization to be in there.

SEE PICKETT, PAGE 3

See a videotape interview with Police Chief Alan Cockrill at Guardonline.com.

Rotary banquet honors citizens, inducts new officer

By TONY MCGUFFEY
Guard Staff Writer

A doctor, a teacher, a lawyer, a cop, school students, a businessman and a good neighbor were all honored at a special banquet held recently by the Batesville Rotary Club.

The "end of the year" event for the local club also saw some of their own members recognized for outstanding work, along with a change in staffing with the announcement of new officers.

Among those recognized from the community for the first time were five local high school students with outstanding scholastic and personal achievements:

Madison N. Stave, Batesville; Elizabeth K. Pratt, Southside; April L. Collins, Midland; Allison C. Shirley, Cedar Ridge; and Zachary R. Slagley, Cave City.

SEE ROTARY, PAGE 2

TONY MCGUFFEY

Amanda Dickey, outgoing president of the Batesville Rotary Club, attaches the president's pin to the lapel of Steve Martens as he prepares to take the president's gavel for the upcoming 2016-17 fiscal year. The transition was made at a recent Rotary banquet held at Lyon College.

Local high school students recognized for their academic accomplishments during a Rotary Club banquet recently include (back row) Madison N. Stave, Batesville; Zachary R. Slagley, Cave City; (front row) Allison C. Shirley, Cedar Ridge; April L. Collins, Midland; and Elizabeth Pratt, Southside.

Those honored for making a difference in the community were (back row) Patrick Collins, Role Model of the Week; Robert Foster, Outstanding Community Service Award; Walmesley, Community Service Award; (front row) Lisa S. Good Neighbor Award; and Leigh Keller, Educator of the Year.

considered to be a contributing resource. A recent project removed the metal slipcase exposing the original façade that was in need. As a result, the building is considered to be a contributing resource in the Batesville Commercial Historic District."

SEE REGISTER, PAGE 2

WE GIVE YOU
FREE

- FREE CHECKING
- COMMUNITY CHOICE CHECKING
- GREEN FIRST CHECKING

MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS ASSOCIATION
FIRST COMMUNITY BANK

Free
Checkin