Can you hear the Thunder? Australia’s Thunder from Down Under is making their long-awaited return to the stage at the historic Kalamazoo State Theatre November 11, 2022!

Australia’s Thunder from Down Under is saddling up for their hottest tour ever and it’s up to us to send them off in style. Let our sizzling hot Aussie exports treat you right & show you how they party in paradise. Yep, it’s date night ladies, with twenty magnetic dream machines that have more muscle and moves than should be legal. Don’t miss your chance to get up close & personal. It’s time to go OUTBACK like never before.

They’ve been featured alongside massive Hollywood stars Steve Carell and Jennifer Garner in the family friendly Disney flick ‘Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day’, distracting just about every female on set including Garner herself. In fact, Australia’s Thunder from Down Under regularly attract global media attention with guest appearances on the likes of Ellen, Project Runway and the TODAY show. There’s a reason for all this success.

It’s because Australia’s Thunder from Down Under are the most sought after ‘Girls Night Out’ on the entire planet. Performing is their specialty and the beloved audiences take full advantage of letting their hair down and kicking their heels up. Extraordinary, ultimate, and unable to be rivaled – Australia’s Thunder from Down Under is all of this and so much more.

This fully choreographed 75 minute stage show is a costuming and audio visual extravaganza. This is Las Vegas on stage!

Up In The Air: Birds Navigating The Anthropocene

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday
Oct 14, 2022 - Jan 31, 2023 at 09:00 am

Admission is free for members.

Non-members:

Adults 18-54: $7.00

Adults 55+: $6.00

Ages 4-17: $4.00

3 & Under: Free

Presented by Kalamazoo Nature Center at Kalamazoo Nature Center, 7000 N. Westnedge Ave., Kalamazoo, MI 49009

Only during the most recent part of the Anthropocene, the era of humans, have the birds along with all living things been required to survive in drastically and rapidly altered environments. Are the challenges to birds the same or different from those facing humans as we, too, try to survive and thrive on a changed planet? What can we do to minimize these impacts and to help birds thrive for millennia to come?

This new exhibit for all ages was developed by KNC and features the work being done by KNC bird experts throughout the seasons to study the changing habits of birds. Learn about bird banding in the fall while trying out your skills in our recreation of the banding barn. Make your own bird nest while learning about the natural – and sometimes human-made – materials birds source to create their nests. Original artwork by Kalamazoo artist Olivia Mendoza is the visual heart of the exhibition, along with displays of preserved eggs and birds.

KNC Exhibits Hall hours are Monday- Saturday 9am-5pm and Sunday 1PM-5PM

Wed, Nov. 16 at 10:00am; Thur, Nov. 17 at 10:00am

Fri, Nov. 18 at 7:30pm; Sat, Nov. 19 at 1:00pm (Sensory Friendly, ASL interpreted, Audio Described) and 4:00pm; Sun, Nov. 20 at 2:00pm

Synopsis: This funny, clever, and inventive play gives you a new look at a familiar adventure from the perspective of three potential heroes just trying to make it through a magic school that proves to be very dangerous for children. Alongside them are the Puffs, a group of well-meaning, loyal outsiders with a thing for badgers “who are so lovable and relatable, you’ll leave the theater wishing they were in the stories all along” (Hollywood Life). Their hilariously heartfelt and epic journey takes the classic story to new places and reimagines what a boy wizard hero can be.

Florence PRICE | Ethiopia's Shadow in America

Anton BRUCKNER | Symphony No. 4 in E-flat major, "Romantic"

We'll be honest: there is no symphony like a Bruckner symphony. With a splash of fairytale intrigue, a bit of big brass, and an orchestra of epic proportions, Anton Bruckner's Fourth Symphony takes us on a breathtaking and grandiose musical journey. Florence Price's moving work Ethiopia's Shadow in America sets the stage for this captivating performance.

You've seen them make up scenes right before your eyes on television's Whose Line is it Anyway?, now see them live and in person. Whose Live Anyway? brings their unique brand of comedy to the historic Kalamazoo State Theatre Sunday, November 13, 2022!

Prepare to laugh until you cry when four of the world's most masterful improv artists take you on the high wire act of comedic acrobatics. Featuring Ryan Stiles and Greg Proops, both seen on ABC's "Whose Line Is It Anyway?" as well as Jeff B. Davis and Joel Murray, their rapid-fire wit and non-stop jokes will have your sides splitting and begging for mercy...and also begging for more. If you are a "Whose Line?" fan, get ready for the same relentless laughter that you grew to love, but without the commercial breaks! If you are new to improv comedy, then you are in for a show unlike anything you have ever seen before.

This particular style of improvisational comedy is rife with countless gags, one-liners, hilarious games and even songs so good you will hardly believe they were made up on the spot. The teamwork and trust that it takes to perform a show with no script is apparent, but when the best of the best do it, they do it effortlessly. Watch them build entire scenes, characters, and storylines right before your eyes as they take you on a white-knuckle ride through endless chuckles.

Ryan Stiles' television credits include roles on "The Drew Carey Show" and "Two and a Half Men," while Greg Proops has lent his vocal talents to animated characters in Star Wars: Episode 1, The Nightmare Before Christmas, and Brother Bear. However, both got their start as comedians and are excited to return to their funny-bone-tickling roots.

Jeff B. Davis is also a highly experienced improv comedian and starred in the cult classic cartoon series, "Harmonquest." He has also starred in "Drew Carey's Green Screen Show" and "Improv-a-Ganza," while gaining fame for his spot-on impressions of Christopher Walken, Keanu Reeves, and Jeff Goldblum.

Joel Murray is the youngest of the nine Murray brothers, including Bill Murray, but has become a star in his own right. Though he has over 250 sitcom appearances, he is best known for his recurring roles like Freddy Rumsen on "Mad Men" and Eddie Jackson on "Shameless." He has also appeared in One Crazy Summer, The Artist, Scrooged, and Bobcat Goldthwait's God Bless America.

WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN: CELEBRATING A CENTURY OF COLLECTING ART AT WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday

Aug 29, 2022 - Nov 19, 2022 at 12:00 pm

Presented by Richmond Center for Visual Arts at Western Michigan University- Richmond Center for Visual Arts, 1903 W. Michigan Avenue, Kalamazoo, MI 49008

Curated by Indra K. Lācis, PhD, Director of Exhibitions, with research assistance by Katie Mumby, B.F.A., Frostic School of Art, '22.

Join us for our fall exhibition!

Monday, August 29th – Saturday, November 19th

closed during fall break, October 19 – 20

Created to enrich learning and work environments throughout Western Michigan University, the Art Collection this year celebrates its 100th anniversary. Featuring nearly 100 works by artists from around the globe, this commemorative exhibition brings together a range of media from diverse geographic areas, time periods, and styles. Drawn from nearly 3,500 objects either stored at the Richmond Center or installed in more than 50 buildings across WMU's main and satellite campuses, We've Only Just Begun: Celebrating a Century of Collecting Art at Western Michigan University highlights major artistic movements while also tracing the University's collecting patterns and the development of the niche position of the University museum and gallery within the art world ecosystem.

The first of two major exhibitions, We've Only Just Begun: Celebrating a Century of Collecting at Western Michigan University will be on view in the Albertine Monroe-Brown gallery at the Richmond Center from August 29 – November 19, 2022. Encyclopedic in scope, We've Only Just Begun includes examples of American Impressionism and European Romanticism, Japanese and Chinese ceramics, and art of Asian, African and indigenous American origin, as well as 20th-century Modernism, Post-war Expressionism, Pop art, and Postmodern painting and printmaking. Beginning in the late fall of 2022, a pendant exhibition spread through the Richmond Center's halls and public spaces will feature works by former Frostic School of Art faculty and staff as well as Frostic School of Art alumni. Self-guided walking tours of major sculptural landmarks and works of art beloved across campus will be announced during the fall of 2022. The second major exhibition celebrating the UAC's 100th anniversary, All Together Now: Contemporary Prints from the University Art Collection, will open on January 17, 2023, and remain on view in the Albertine Monroe-Brown gallery through February 25, 2023.

KAREN BONDARCHUK ERGO SUM: A CROW A DAY

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday

Sep 22, 2022 - Nov 13, 2022 at 12:00 pm

Presented by Richmond Center for Visual Arts at Western Michigan University- Richmond Center for Visual Arts, 1903 W. Michigan Avenue, Kalamazoo, MI 49008

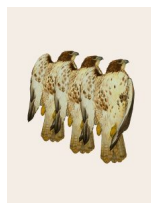

Join the Richmond Center for Visual Arts for their fall exhibition!

Friday, September 22, 2022 – Sunday, November 13, 2022

closed during fall break, October 19-20

Beginning in the late summer of 2014, Canadian-born artist Karen Bondarchuk began marking the passage of time that her mother, diagnosed with dementia in 2010, could no longer track. For 365 days, Bondarchuk produced “a crow a day” on hand-cut, gessoed panels. Composed of these individualized images, all of which are linked by a common thread, the resulting project articulates both the notion of time lost (and lost time) as well as the distinctiveness and transitory nature of each passing day. A deeply thoughtful approach to communication, A Crow a Day explores an artist’s relationship to the world and translations of grief and loss. Organized by the Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum, the exhibition A Crow a Day has been presented at the University of Saint Francis, IN, and the Woodson Art Museum (WI) in 2016; at Union College (KY) in 2018; and the Brinton Museum (WY) and the Huntington Museum (WV) in 2019; and at the Denno Museum (MI) and the James Museum (FL) in 2021.

Check out Karen Bondarchuk’s website, and read more about this exhibition here.

Going, Going, Gone is a new solo exhibition by multidisciplinary artist and environmentalist Kristina Sheufelt. Sheufelt is based in Detroit, Michigan, and recently received her MFA from the University of Michigan’s Penny W. Stamps School of Art and Design. In Going, Going, Gone, Sheufelt uses a variety of media to examine themes of loss and absence in the natural world. In Sheufelt’s practice, an ever-evolving hybrid of art-making, conservation work, and contemplative studies, the psychological landscape of loss is a fluid space, a site of exchange in which human concerns and environmental concerns are deeply entangled, each informing and impacting the other.
