Public Media Network's Neighborhood Voices Network Meeting

Monday

Nov 16, 2020 - Dec 14, 2020 at 06:00 pm

Presented by Public Media Network at Epic Center, 359 S. Kalamazoo Mall, Kalamazoo, MI 49007

Neighborhood Journalists will be given the training, platform, and tools to start reporting on news in their community. The Neighborhood Journalist Network will showcase media coverage from a wide array of voices. More people, and more perspectives, means that news coverage will be more well-rounded and lift up more voices in the community.

Anyone interested in telling a story, and is ages 14+, is invited to become a Neighborhood Journalist for Public Media Network. Neighborhood Journalists will be trained with all the tools needed to be successful, including instructions in topics like: what makes a story newsworthy, interviewing strategies, writing basics, AP Style, event coverage, journalism ethics, video storytelling, cultural competency, and equipment basics.

Neighborhood Journalists will go through a five-session virtual training period that is taking place once a week. Following this, Neighborhood Journalists are invited to a bi-weekly meeting led by PMN Journalist, Raine Kuch, and other PMN staff members. These meetings will give journalists the opportunity to collaborate with each other, get feedback on story ideas, and learn more about what is happening in the community.

November 18 Artist Happy Hour

Wednesday

Nov 18, 2020 at 06:00 pm

Presented by Arts Council of Greater Kalamazoo at Online/Virtual Space

On Wednesday, November 18, members of the Arts Council are invited to attend a 90-minute Zoom session from 6:00 to 7:30 pm, designed to give information and connect you with other artists. These round tables will take place monthly. Virtual meetings will take place through December. The virtual meetings are BYOB and feel free to bring snacks as well. The first 10 non-member attendees will receive a free one-year ACGK membership.

November's topic: Justice and Equity in the Arts – let's continue the conversation.

Saturdays with the Stulberg - Charlotte Marckx

Saturday

Nov 21, 2020 at 10:30 am

Recitals are free and may be viewed on our website at www.stulberg.org

Presented by Stulberg International String Competition at Online/Virtual Space

In conjunction with our fall annual appeal, we are thrilled to announce our first-ever virtual concert series, Saturdays with the Stulberg. The series will feature recitals by three of our most captivating recent Stulberg medalists: cellist Oliver Herbert, violist Haesue Lee, and violinist Charlotte Marckx, all of whom have wowed audiences from our physical stages here in Kalamazoo over the past five years and readily accepted the opportunity to play for us again — this time in the comfort of our own living rooms.

All three artists have commented on the unique creative space quarantine has provided for them to explore repertoire at a different pace, and we can't wait to hear the fruits of their practice.

The recitals will be broadcast on Saturdays November 7, 14, and 21 via our website (www.stulberg.org). Each performer will offer a 45-60 minute program to be announced from their home stages.

Recitals will be free.

VOCES8

Friday, October 30, 2020 at 7:30 pm

Join Fontana for the livestream of VOCES8 on October 30, available through November 29. British ensemble VOCES8 takes a cappella chamber singing to a new level. Called “impeccable” (Gramophone) and “slickest of the lot” (BBC Radio 3), the eight-voice ensemble performs everything from Renaissance polyphony to contemporary arrangements.

VOCES8 is heard regularly on albums, international television, and radio; their broad reach has taken them to such prestigious global venues as Royal Albert Hall, Cité de la Musique Paris, Tokyo Opera City, Shanghai Concert Hall, and Mariinsky Theatre Concert Hall.

This livestream will be filmed on location in London.

Brooklyn Rider

Friday, November 20, 2020 at 7:30 pm

Join Fontana for the livestream of Brooklyn Rider on November 20, available through December 19. If you think you know chamber music, think again. The veteran string quartet, Brooklyn Rider, presents eclectic repertoire and gripping performances that continue to draw rave reviews from classical, world, and rock critics alike.

The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette described the ensemble as “four classical musicians with the energy of young rock stars jamming on their guitars, a Beethoven-goes-indie foray into making classical music accessible but also celebrating why it was good in the first place”.

This livestream will be filmed on location in New York City.

Saturdays with the Stulberg: Charlotte Marckx – Violin, 2018 Gold Medalist

Saturday, November 21, 2020 at 10:30 am

In conjunction with our fall annual appeal, we are thrilled to announce our first-ever virtual concert series, Saturdays with the Stulberg.

The series will feature recitals by three of our most captivating recent Stulberg medalists: cellist Oliver Herbert, violist Haesue Lee, and violinist Charlotte Marckx, all of whom have wowed audiences from our physical stages here in Kalamazoo over the past five years and readily accepted the opportunity to play for us again – this time in the comfort of our own living rooms.

The recitals will be broadcast on Saturdays, November 7, 14, and 21 via our website (www.stulberg.org).

Each performer will offer a 45-60 minute program to be announced from their home stages. Recitals will be free, and we anticipate a vibrant and international audience of music lovers like the ones who attended our virtual competition this past May.

While we missed connecting with the Stulberg’s generous supporters at our usual Summer and Stars Celebration in this highly unusual year, we relish this novel opportunity to share music and fellowship virtually. We are deeply grateful to the Stulberg community for your continued support of this organization, and of our stellar young musicians, in this uniquely challenging time. We hope you will join us in celebrating their artistry from afar this November!

Friday, November 20, 11:00 am – 8:00 pm

Saturday, November 21, 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Every year, the KIA is transformed into a bustling marketplace for its annual Holiday Art Sale. This Kalamazoo tradition fills the museum lobby and art school studios with hand-crafted ceramics; jewelry; fused glass wearables and decor; hand-woven scarves and accessories; paintings; functional and decorative ceramics; framed photographs, prints, and paintings; and metal sculpture. More than a 1,000 shoppers annually find one-of-a-kind gifts, wearable art, and home decor. The museum often sees a spike in membership from those seeking early shopping benefits.

On view will be the work of artists who teach or take classes at the Kirk Newman Art School All of the work is created by art school students and faculty in the studios and classrooms and proceeds support the artists and the school.

This year introducing our new VIRTUAL PERSONAL SHOPPERS.

If you want to shop from the safety of your own home you can reserve a personal shopper for 30minutes for only $10 and all proceeds go to the KNAS Scholarship Fund.
