In conjunction with our fall annual appeal, we are thrilled to announce our first-ever virtual concert series, Saturdays with the Stulberg. The series will feature recitals by three of our most captivating recent Stulberg medalists: cellist Oliver Herbert, violist Haesue Lee, and violinist Charlotte Marckx, all of whom have wowed audiences from our physical stages here in Kalamazoo over the past five years and readily accepted the opportunity to play for us again — this time in the comfort of our own living rooms.

All three artists have commented on the unique creative space quarantine has provided for them to explore repertoire at a different pace, and we can't wait to hear the fruits of their practice.

The recitals will be broadcast on Saturdays November 7, 14, and 21 via our website (www.stulberg.org). Each performer will offer a 45-60 minute program to be announced from their home stages.

Recitals will be free.

KIDS & FAMILY

Día de los Muertos

Monday
Nov 02, 2020 at 06:30 pm

Free Admission

Presented by El Concilio at Online/Virtual Space

The Hispanic American Council would like to invite you to our 7th Annual Día de Los Muertos Celebration, which will take place as a virtual event on November 2nd, 2020. El Día de los Muertos, or Day of the Dead, is a celebration filled with music, folkloric dances, traditional art, delicious food, and fun activities for families. This celebration originates from México and is a Native Aztec ceremony used to remember, honor, and support the spiritual journey of our ancestors, for their deaths were not the end but only the beginning of their journey to the spirit realm.

Since this year's event will be virtual, we will invite individuals and businesses to come to El Concilio to build their own altar. The main part of the event will be a virtual tour of all the beautiful altars from the community. We will also auction off some lovely hand-made piñatas and have gift bags for children to pick up from our office ahead of time. We are looking forward to appearances from a folkloric dance group as well as a presentation live from Mexico. If you have any questions about the event or are interested in building an altar, please contact Emma Robbins at robbins@elconciliokzoo.org or send us a message through our Facebook page, El Concilio Kzoo.
