Public Media Network's Neighborhood Voices Network Meeting

Monday

Nov 16, 2020 - Dec 14, 2020 at 06:00 pm

Presented by Public Media Network at Epic Center, 359 S. Kalamazoo Mall, Kalamazoo, MI 49007

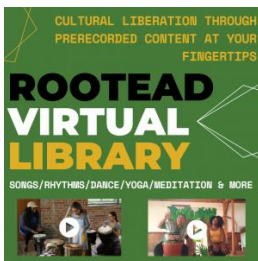

Neighborhood Journalists will be given the training, platform, and tools to start reporting on news in their community. The Neighborhood Journalist

Network will showcase media coverage from a wide array of voices. More people, and more perspectives, means that news coverage will be more well-rounded and lift up more voices in the community.

Anyone interested in telling a story, and is ages 14+, is invited to become a Neighborhood Journalist for Public Media Network. Neighborhood Journalists will be trained with all the tools needed to be successful, including instructions in topics like: what makes a story newsworthy, interviewing strategies, writing basics, AP Style, event coverage, journalism ethics, video storytelling, cultural competency, and equipment basics.

Neighborhood Journalists will go through a five-session virtual training period that is taking place once a week. Following this, Neighborhood Journalists are invited to a bi-weekly meeting led by PMN Journalist, Raine Kuch, and other PMN staff members. These meetings will give journalists the opportunity to collaborate with each other, get feedback on story ideas, and learn more about what is happening in the community.

VOCES8

Friday, October 30, 2020 at 7:30 pm

Join Fontana for the livestream of VOCES8 on October 30, available through November 29. British ensemble VOCES8 takes a cappella chamber singing to a new level. Called “impeccable” (Gramophone) and “slickest of the lot” (BBC Radio 3), the eight-voice ensemble performs everything from Renaissance polyphony to contemporary arrangements.

VOCES8 is heard regularly on albums, international television, and radio; their broad reach has taken them to such prestigious global venues as Royal Albert Hall, Cité de la Musique Paris, Tokyo Opera City, Shanghai Concert Hall, and Mariinsky Theatre Concert Hall.

This livestream will be filmed on location in London.

Brooklyn Rider

Friday, November 20, 2020 at 7:30 pm

Join Fontana for the livestream of Brooklyn Rider on November 20, available through December 19. If you think you know chamber music, think again. The veteran string quartet, Brooklyn Rider, presents eclectic repertoire and gripping performances that continue to draw rave reviews from classical, world, and rock critics alike.

The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette described the ensemble as “four classical musicians with the energy of young rock stars jamming on their guitars, a Beethoven-goes-indie foray into making classical music accessible but also celebrating why it was good in the first place”.

This livestream will be filmed on location in New York City.

Virtual Rising Stars | Dominic Cheli

Sunday, November 29, 2020, 4:00 pm

Dominic Cheli performs Beethoven’s monumental “Hammerklavier” sonata, one of the most thrilling and powerful works ever composed for the piano. Recognizing the enormity of the piece, Beethoven’s publishers presented it in 1819 as a work that “excels above all other creations of this master not only through its most rich and grand fantasy but also in regard to artistic perfection and sustained style, [marking] a new period in Beethoven’s pianoforte works.”

Mr. Cheli made his Carnegie Hall recital debut during the 2019-20 season and recently recorded his second CD, featuring works by Liszt and Schubert, on the Naxos label. He has performed with orchestras across the US and abroad and debuted at several major festivals. Mr. Cheli is committed to engaging with his surrounding community and regularly performs at high schools and retirement homes and gives both masterclasses and lectures for his younger audiences.
