MEMBERSHIP PROPOSAL PROCEDURE

1. Rotarian proposer completes a Membership Proposal Form and returns it to the Secretary.
2. Secretary forwards proposal to Chairpersons of the Classifications and Membership Committees for eligibility consideration from the classifications standpoint and in regard to character, business and social standing and general eligibility.
3. The recommendation for or against the proposed individual goes to the Board of Directors for their decision.
4. If the Board renders a negative decision, the proposer is informed and is expected to so inform the proposed member. In an unusual situation the Club Secretary may issue a letter to the proposer and/or the proposed.
5. If the Board renders a positive decision, the proposed member's name is published to the Club. Members have seven days to submit a written objection.
6. If no written objection is received within seven days, the prospective member and proposer are notified of the prospect's eligibility for Club membership along with an induction date.
7. If a written objection is filed within the seven day period, the Board shall ballot on the proposed member.
8. During a new member's induction ceremony, the proposer introduces the person to the Club and the Secretary presents the new member with a packet of information, a pin, a badge and a current bill.
