NO IN PERSON MEETING - ONLY ON ZOOM

"Club Assembly"

On Monday, November 8, for the first time in many years, we will be holding our Club Assembly. The purpose of holding a Club Assembly is to inform the membership about the status of the club, our membership, finances, and also gauge how we are doing as a club. At this meeting, we will also break out into small groups (rooms) as we did last summer, where we will seek your input about the club's structure, our meetings, programming, and membership. Your participation is vital to this Assembly, so please plan on attending via Zoom next Monday!

Chair of the Day: Shaun Yu

This Happened Last Monday...

Shaun Yu, President, called the meeting to order a little after noon. He turned the meeting over to Bill Nance for the 4-Way test, Invocation and Pledge to the flag. News of the day included FAA fined an airplane passenger a record $52,000 for disrupting a flight from Honolulu to Seattle. 21 year old tried to open the cockpit and fought with flight attendants. He is banned from future Delta Flights. Microsoft has reclaimed the title of the world's most valuable company after surpassing Apples market capitalization. Microsoft has market cap of 2.48 Trillion and Apple has 2.47 Trillion. Tuesday is Election Day with many important local issues. Rotary served to change lives in Tanzania. Lack of safe transportation has been a barrier to education. Rotary club in Modesto California is working to provide pink bicycles to girls. The conspicuous color is a theft deterrent. Thieves in the UK broke into the car of a shoe salesman and took off with 80 shoes. The salesman was carrying around single shoes for samples of new shoe designs, not a pair among them. Cooler weather to come.

Joanna McCord welcomed two visitors. Shaun Yu had a guest Patrick Nugent, CEO/President of Dayton Performing Arts Alliance and Jay Woodhull had a guest Father Dan McLain from St. Paul's Church. Linda Groover introduced another guest that didn't make the list. Melody Morris who was a guest of Bill Nance. Melody is a co-host with Bill on the morning show. We have brought back the Queen of Heart drawing. Those on zoom can also participate by putting in the chat how many tickets they want to purchase and it will be added to their monthly bill. Someone in the room that did not purchase a ticket will draw the card. Announcements ♦ Annual coat drive ♦ we are shopping. If you want to make a donation please do so right away.

Kelly Lehman also had an announcement regarding Youth Peace in Action/Peace Advocacy leadership in service. Next April 23, 2022 first Youth Peace advocacy leadership in service day partnership with the international peace museum. Aiming for 100 students. She has met with DECA students and RYLA students and students from the local STEM school. If you are part of an organization that works with 14-18 year olds or you know 14-18 year old students that you would like to get involved Kelly Lehman has information to get you started. November 29th and for 5 months thereafter will be zoom sessions to do the online modules that the students do and participation in a course. This is our Pilot year with hopes for years to come.

Linda advised members If you don't have a red ribbon at your table please put a dollar on your table. She also encouraged Red Ribbon members to attend in person. If you have a rotary pin on you are absolved from putting a dollar on the table.

Began his career at RTA in 1987 and worked his way up to CEO and is a downtown resident for over 30 years.

Chair of the day Shaun Yu introduced our speaker Natalie Dunlevey. Natalie founded National Processing Solutions in 2003 as it's CFO but in Jan 2012 assumed day to day management as it's President and then founded Enterprise PCI in 2016. Natalie provided us with valuable information relating to how the credit card/debit card system works behind the scenes, and the governing agencies that cause some of the processes to be the way they are. She taught us how to negotiate lower fees and what fees are negotiable. She also taught us what to be aware of when choosing a credit card processing platform and how to avoid charge backs. PAY TIPS WITH CASH! Natalie picked the winning ticket for the queen of hearts. Frank Scott was the winner but did not pull the queen of hearts.

Next week we will not be at Sinclair. We are having a club Assembly on Zoom ONLY next week. It's an opportunity to understand what Rotary does and can do and allow you to participate in suggestions for our club.

Meeting was adjourned a little after 1:00 p.m.
