Honorary Membership — People who have distinguished themselves by meritorious service in the furtherance of Rotary ideals may be elected to honorary membership.

Classification — Each active member of a Rotary club is classified in accordance with the member’s business or profession. A classification describes the principal and recognized activity of the firm with which an active member is connected or the member’s principal and recognized business or professional activity. Retired members require a classification but are not included in a club’ total number for each classification.

Standard Procedure — The name of the prospective member shall be proposed and submitted by an active member at a regular meeting. Any objections to the prospective members shall be made in writing, and state reasons for the objection, to any officer or director of the board. In the event an objection is made, the board shall vote on the proposed member within one week. If no objection is made, the proposing member and member-elect shall be notified, and upon payment of dues, the proposed member shall be considered elected to the club. If an objection is made, and the board votes to accept the new member, the proposing member and member-elect shall be notified and be considered elected to the club. If an objection is made, and the board votes to decline the new member, the proposing member and declined member shall be notified. The club may elect honorary members that are nominated by the board, by oral vote of the members at any regular meeting.

After approval has been announced, the prospective member is fully informed of privileges, expectations and responsibilities of club membership.
