Please enjoy this week's presentation by Eric Golub, American comedian, author and speaker

Eric Golub is a national Jewish columnist, author, speaker and comedian who has spoken in all 50 states. "Jewish Lunacy" is his newest comedy book where he teaches people how to use humor to be better advocates for their religion of choice. He also speaks about American politics, foreign policy, and the stock market. In his spare time, he monitors the Middle East Studies departments of college campuses and exposes anti-Israel professors. Before going on the speaking circuit, he spent 15 years as a stockbrokerage and oil professional on Wall Street. He lives in Los Angeles. His hobbies include the National Football League, trying new hamburger joints, and watching "Murder, She Wrote."

Mission:

The mission of Rotary International is to provide service to others, promote integrity, and advance world understanding, goodwill, and peace through its fellowship of business, professional and community leaders.

Learn and lead at RLI in November

Want to learn more about Rotary and leadership opportunities in the organization? Rotary Leadership Institute is the place to do it. You should go! Attendees can meet other Rotarians in the district, learn about Rotary structure and more. Class also includes morning snacks and lunch. Fellowship with Rotarians AND free food? Can't beat that. The November, RLI workshops are now open to registration. The class will be from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Renaissance Center in Dickson, Tenn. Several Rotarians are happy to carpool, making the trip more fun. The last class filled up quickly and some members were unable to register. Do not delay! The local club will pay your registration. To register, visit the link: <http://www.hoa-rli.org/rli/rli-by-district> and look for District 6760. If you have not attended before, sign up for Class 1.

Why do people do things? It is so much easier to just not do things... To not get up early on a Saturday, to not help recruit sponsors or participants for an event. So why do people, why do we as Rotarians, do these things? Because we're asked. Our community asks for our help. Our club asks us to be leaders. And our hearts agree. But let's not stop at answering the question of "Can you help?" Let's ask it ourselves. Bring a friend to volunteer with you at the Valor Run. Invite a colleague or business contact to join our club. Reach out to a new member and ask them to attend a club committee meeting. We're Rotarians. Let's do this. Service rocks, Chris Buerck

Volunteers needed Saturday

The Rotary Club is a partial beneficiary of the Valor Run

The Valor Run began as a community initiative to honor the courage and sacrifice of our American Heroes. In conjunction with the Welcome Home Celebration, the race will be held at Beachaven Winery. Runners will each be given TWO race bibs. One for them, and one with the name of a fallen Soldier.

Friday:

- Help at expo from 9:30 am – 7 pm. (various positions)

Saturday:

- Course set up 5:30 am (at least 1 more slot)
- Shuttle bus help – (2 people) be at the Sears parking lot by 5:45am
- Handing out bibs to registered runners – begin 6am (3 people)
- Water stops – depending on water stop as early as 7:45
- Helping timing company (at least 2 -4 more)
- Course break down (3-5 folks)

Please find Cheryl Moss today to sign up for a time and task or email cmoss@legendsbank.com. Rotary is a beneficiary of some race proceeds, provided only if we can supply volunteers. Volunteers do not have to be Rotarians. Please recruit as many people as possible.
