Reverend Abraham, a veteran of the Desert Storm War as a young man, related stories regarding his time overseas and the efforts to build a National Memorial to commemorate Desert Storm. A site has been chosen and a conceptual design developed. He is active in the organization working to fund and install the memorial. It will not be funded at all by taxpayer dollars—just private and corporate donations. They have a long way to go. See website <http://www.ndswm.org/>

Beth Stephens, Upper Cumberland Volunteer Coordinator explaining the Volunteer Senior Ride Program that uses volunteers to provide inexpensive rides to seniors in Cumberland County via volunteer drivers. She was assisted by Carrie Davenport. Similar to the ride program run by FGRS, but at the County and State level. For more info go to www.myrideuctn.com
