Richard and Vicky gave a tremendous presentation about their caretaker responsibilities as they taken on the responsibility of serving as Conservators of their brother and one of our honorary members Howard Hickerson.

Richard is partnered in work and life with his wife, Vicky, the Director of Consulting and Training for Executive Leadership Skills International which Richard is the founder and owner of. They have three simple yet insightful rules for their work:

Do no harm,
 Leave the organization better than you found it.
 Deliver more than the service promised.
