

INTERNATIONAL SERVICE PROJECT RESOURCES

1. Rotary International Service Project Center - <https://spc.rotary.org/>

Browse through this site to look for projects by location, area of focus, global grant number, status (completed, looking for global partners, etc.), category (polio, fundraiser, disaster response, international, etc.)

2. Rotary International Project Fairs - opportunities to learn about projects and connect with project leaders in locations like Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador, West Africa, etc. Online and in person.

3. Global Grants Website - Explore projects listed on matchinggrants.org/

4. Rotary Learning Center - <https://learn.rotary.org/members/pages/36/course-catalogs>

Find hundreds of courses offered online for FREE! There are 10 category headings with several courses under each one. They are designed to make you a better, more informed Rotarian! Suggested for interest in International Service are:

- Areas of Focus
- Conducting Community Assessment
- Increasing Your Impact
- Global Grants
- Vocational Training Teams
- Measuring and Reporting Your Impact
- Service Project Essentials
- The Importance of Eradicating Polio

5. Rotary Action Groups - RAGS

If you have a specific interest, there may be a RAG for it and they should be able to give you information about projects that might not be listed in the Service Project Center. It is definitely worthwhile to reach out to them. They are a great source of information! Learn more at: <https://my.rotary.org/en/take-action/empower-leaders/rotary-action-groups>
