Active Membership: The “traditional” membership category, these members maintain at least 50% attendance, keep dues current, and take part in at least one Rotary service activity each year. Quarterly fees cover meals, plus dues to Rotary International, District 6910, and the club. Unless another membership category is requested, all new members will be part of this membership category.

Rule of 85 Membership: These members have at least 20 years as a Rotary member (in any club), and total of years in Rotary plus their age is equal to or over 85. Rule of 85 Members have no attendance requirement. They pay RI, District, and Club dues, but are not pre-billed for meals.

Shared Membership: This category allows two or three people (e.g., spouses; business partners) to “share” membership and attendance responsibilities, with a single payment stream. Each is a Rotarian, but only jointly must meet the 50% attendance requirement. At least one of the shared members takes part in one or more Rotary service activities each year. Dues cover the RI and district dues for each individual, plus shared club dues and up to 12 meals per quarter total.

Young Rotary Leaders Membership: Members under 40 years old with strong leadership potential can request this category; after three years, or turning 40, this automatically converts to the “active membership” category. These members pay a reduced fee, but commit to help with at least one club-sponsored Service Project during every six-month period (2/year, providing at least 10 hours of service). They also maintain 50%+ attendance.

Creative Class Membership: Members eligible for vocational classification in arts- or music-oriented creative production fields (e.g., visual arts, performing musician, etc.) can request this category (no more than 5% of club members). Creative Class members agree to lead at least one club-sponsored, arts-oriented event or service project (e.g., lead an arts-based club program; serve on Vic Chesnutt Songwriter of the Year Award committee; plan a club-affiliated concert; etc.) each Rotary year, and take part in at least two other club project per year (accruing 15+ hours of service per year). These members must maintain 30% attendance. They are pre-billed monthly, and pay separately for any meals eaten.
