Reunion Country Club

With dramatic elevations and some of the most beautiful views around, Reunion Country Club is one of the most played courses in North Atlanta. The championship par-72 course, designed by Michael Riley, grants a fun and challenging experience for golfers of all levels. Reunion Country Club plays 6,936 yards from the back tee and features the only hole in Atlanta with two greens.

Conveniently located fewer than five miles from I-85 near Braselton, Georgia, Reunion combines an idyllic setting, a spectacular course and a professional PGA staff to provide a first-class golf experience that is second to none, all at a great value. The spacious club in picturesque Reunion Hall is also a popular backdrop for tournaments and special events.
