

GoGREENville District Conference to Host Activities for Everyone

While Rotarians from around the district embark on Greenville during April of 2022, they will find there are several opportunities to create new memories with family members and fellow Rotarians. Becky Carlan, the District Conference Activity Chair, is excited to share several of the most anticipated events available at registration this year. The wide variety of options provides something for everyone when you GoGREENville!

Jack N Diane's Dueling Piano Bar

Rotary District 6910 will be treated to an exclusive, private event on Friday April 22nd from 5 to 7 PM at this local showstopper. Dueling pianos play the hits of yesterday and today during this 90-minute performance. Each registration includes the price of admission, two drink tickets, and a charcuterie table. Additional beverages and a full menu of items will be available for purchase during the event. Space for this event is limited so make sure you include it with your registration soon. Cost has been reduced to $50 per Rotarian thanks to an Event Sponsor BlueSonix.

Mice on Main: The Scavenger Hunt

In a lot of cities, the last thing you want to see is a mouse. However, Greenville welcomes nine bronze mice have taken up permanent residence along Main Street. Conceived as part of a local senior project and inspired by the children's book Goodnight Moon, the mice were brought to life by local sculptor and illustrator Zan Wells. Author Linda Kelly joined the team and "Mice on Main" has become a beloved Greenville institution—from the scavenger hunt to the children's book, board game, and T-shirts. Using the clues to hunt for each mouse makes a stroll along Main Street extra fun for kids of all ages. These mice are scattered along Main Street from the Hyatt Regency to Westin Poinsett. Use the clues to find them all!

Swamp Rabbit Bike Tour

Jump on a Bike and hit the trail or tour in this case. Reedy Rides provides a perfect tour for tourists looking to become familiar with one of the best trails in the country. If you've hopped on the Swamp Rabbit Tour before then make sure and check out the coolest new additions. The Saturday afternoon guided tour provides options for families and children. Registration is $65 and can be booked when you register for district conference.

“Shoeless” Joe Jackson Museum & Baseball Library

Conference participants can sign up to visit the Shoeless Joe Jackson Museum on Friday or Saturday of the district conference. The non-profit organization honors the life of the greatest natural hitter to ever play the game. There is no charge for to visit the museum but please sign up during registration.

Group Running & Fun Walk

Do you dread sitting in sessions? Looking to get your blood pumping? We have organized early morning exercise sessions for all levels, where you can work those muscles, get some fresh air, take in the GREENery, all while enjoying old friends and maybe making some new. Sign up and participate in either the running portion or the fun walk – go at the pace that fits – you do you!

In addition to all the planned activities the GoGREENville Rotary District 6910 Conference has to offer, there are plenty of opportunities to shop and dine the downtown district of Greenville. Check out this great Downtown District Map for a full list of restaurants and destinations.
