

Love Is Listening

Back by popular demand, Michael Verde, the founder of Memory Bridge, an internationally recognized non-profit dedicated to healing the unnecessary suffering of loneliness, will be at Treasure Coast Hospice for a special presentation. Please join us for this unique opportunity which will illuminate how each of us has the credentials, with the gift of our presence, to heal what currently cannot be cured.

Monday, February 24th noon till 1:30pm
Treasure Coast Hospice 1201 S.E. Indian St. Stuart

Please RSVP to dgvona@gmail.com by Thursday, February 20th

Patricia Lichtenberger with Gytha Von Aldenbruck, a long-time Memory Bridge advocate in a scene from the documentary "Love is Listening: Dementia Without Loneliness."

"Love Is Listening" will open your heart to a new way of being with people with dementia—a way that turns awkward to flow, isolation to intimacy, and loneliness to companionship. Although 70% of us know someone with dementia, many still struggle to connect with those in this condition. This workshop begins a journey from fear to deep listening.
