

THE SUNRISE CIRCUIT

Newsletter of the
Stuart Sunrise Rotary Club, Florida

Minutes of September 24, 2009 meeting

50-50: Bob Thompson
Pledge: Jim Horstman
Prayer: Bob Swan

President Rocco called the meeting to order at 7:30 AM

For entertainment this evening while pecking away I choose to listen to one of the first jazz female singers that I was exposed to. Location, a lounge in San Antonio, Texas that a bunch of us went to after hours while in training at Fort Sam Houston.

It was the era of Chris Connor, Julie Christy and not last but with a very distinct style- Frances Faye.

About her: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Frances_Faye

Mel Torme and Frances Faye from Bethlehem album "Porgy & Bess"
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HKt9j6Oj5kI>

Frances Faye singing "The Man I Love"
http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qM0UNrGu_p8

On to club business: Our esteemed President Rocco decided that Club business would be put off for a week or so as there was a full agenda what with the Club Corp Charity Event scheduled for tomorrow morning, Friday the 25th. (That date, as Irene will remind everyone, is the date 44 years ago that we met on a blind date.

President Rocco thanked everyone that helped with the beach cleanup this past Saturday. Hmmm! How come no fines for those that did not participate?

Keith Charlton: announced that 84 golfers were signed up as of last evening, compared to last years 52. Perhaps we can have a sell out next year. I think that should be an attainable goal, n'est pas?

Gary Damen and Cy Buckley will be the officials manning the Subaru and Harley hole-in-one par 3's.

Auction items are growing and there will be silent and live auctions. Dick Farrell will again be the guest auctioneer. I had the pleasure of playing in his foursome last year and had a great time.

By the way, much to everyone's surprise Richard Kjellstrom attended our meeting this morning. Richard was in town and decided to have breakfast at his old stomping grounds. As usual I had a large water glass full of orange juice in celebration of Richards visit.

Sergeant-at arms: Diane Scott was back after a brief illness and collected many happy, sad, sports and other unmentionables. Rhonda Werner-Schultz gladly paid a happy dollar for the announcement that she and her husband, John, were to have a baby in the near future. No date was given, but a large round of applause was given to Rhonda.

Butch: announced that members please do not ask any more people to his soir e before the Lyric outing, November 5th: Three Redneck tenors at the LYRIC. Tickets are $35 with $15 going to the club. Make check payable to Stuart-Sunrise Rotary Club. Butch offered to everyone attending the concert, to come to Saiffish marina for a light barbeque. Participants are encouraged to bring pot luck and Butch will provide meat, beer, soda and wine. No hard liquor please. (His insurance agent Keith was getting an ulcer thinking about ye old liability factor.)

50-50 Drawing: won by Reinhard. The pot is now $306.00 alas Reinhard pulled the Queen of Hearts. The pot continues to grow.