

Oct. 25th - Hear from one of the very top real estate agents in Palm Beach - Steven Presson Real Trends currently identifies Steven as the thirteenth largest selling agent in Palm Beach as dollar volume of sales and 107th in the State of Florida. Steven is a luxury real estate agent with the Corcoran Group of The Palm Beaches, specializing in million dollar plus homes along the coast from Delray Beach to Manalapan.

Steven Presson grew up in South Jersey and graduated from Monmouth College with a Marketing Degree in Business Administration. He has served as a Board Director on the Palm Beach County Board of Realtors for several years and headed up the Board's Education Committee for four years. His past and current clients include Tony Robbins, Celebrity Trainer Billy Beck & Frank McKinney, and many more. He was a member of the Palm Beach Rotary Club for ten years, served as its President for two terms, and headed the Scholarship Committee for four years. He has also been involved with Food For The Poor & Healthy Mother's and Healthy Babies. He currently lives on Hypoluxo Island with his two young boys.