

Paul Harris Fellow Recipient is the Donor:

The presentation of Paul Harris Fellow recognition is The Rotary Foundation's way of expressing its appreciation for a substantial contribution to its humanitarian and educational programs. It is named for our founder, Paul Harris, a Chicago lawyer who started Rotary International with three business associates in 1905.

We move closer to a world of peace and good will today as _____ becomes a Paul Harris Fellow. (His/Her) gift to The Rotary Foundation's educational and humanitarian programs is a commitment to peace and to a better life for people across the world whom (he/she) may never meet. This is a truly selfless action.

_____, it is because of gifts like yours that The Rotary Foundation is able to carry out an array of programs that achieve beneficial changes in our world: improved living conditions, increased food production, better education, wider availability of treatment and rehabilitation for the sick and disabled, new channels for the flow of international understanding, and brighter hopes for peace.

Here is a small listing of some of those that you now join as Paul Harris Fellows: Mother Theresa, Nelson Mandela, Kofi Anann, Prince Charles, Indira Gandhi, Luciano Pavarotti, Pope John Paul II.

In becoming a Paul Harris Fellow, _____ joins a remarkable company of persons throughout the world, all recognized for their devotion to the ideal of good will, peace and understanding.

It is the goal of Rotarians the world over, and one that _____ clearly shares. It gives me great pleasure, _____, to present you with the three emblems of appreciation given to a Paul Harris Fellow - - certificate, medallion and pin. We congratulate you and we thank you for your commitment to the programs of The Rotary Foundation.

Paul Harris Fellow Recipient is NOT the Donor:

The presentation of Paul Harris Fellow recognition is The Rotary Foundation's way of expressing its appreciation for a substantial contribution to its humanitarian and educational programs. It is named for our founder, Paul Harris, a Chicago lawyer who started Rotary International with three business associates in 1905.

Rotarians often designate a Paul Harris Fellow as a tribute to a person whose life demonstrates a shared purpose with the objectives of The Rotary Foundation. Today we have the honor and pleasure of recognizing _____ as (he/she) becomes a Paul Harris Fellow.

(The following optional sentence may be added if donor is to be announced.)

(He/She) was designated to receive this recognition as a special expression of appreciation from (name of individual or group making the PHF).

A world of peace and good will comes closer to reality today as _____ becomes a Paul Harris Fellow. It is because of gifts like the one made in _____ honor that The Rotary Foundation is able to carry out an array of programs that achieve beneficial changes in our world: improved living conditions, increased food production, better education, wider availability of treatment and rehabilitation for the sick and disabled, new channels for the flow of international understanding, and brighter hopes for peace.

A contribution to The Rotary Foundation is an investment in the ideal of good will, peace and understanding. That is an ideal held high by Rotarians the world over, and one that _____ clearly shares. Working with such individuals of good will, we believe the ideal will become a reality.

Here is a small listing of some of those that you now join as Paul Harris Fellows: Mother Theresa, Nelson Mandela, Kofi Anann, Prince Charles, Indira Gandhi, Luciano Pavarotti, Pope John Paul II.

In becoming a Paul Harris Fellow, _____ joins a remarkable company of persons throughout the world, all recognized for their devotion to the ideal of good will, peace and understanding.

It gives me great pleasure, _____, to present to you the three emblems of appreciation given to a Paul Harris Fellow - - certificate, medallion and pin. Please accept our congratulations and sincere thanks, for your commitment to our common goals of world understanding and peace.