approx. 2 miles West of Downtown Blountstown off SR 20

Clearly marked with a permanent sign, follow signs for Goat Show

Trailer Show, no pens provided

Water to wash animals, however please note, no wash rack

All animals must have current health certificate

Check in Starts at 7 am to 8:30 am * Central Standard Time

9:00 am PEE WEE show will start for the first 20 youth entrants who are not entered into the show.

Youth Exhibitors are encouraged to mentor and share their animals with a youngster who is under 8 years of age to help encourage and share their love for goats and exhibiting goats. This takes about 20 minutes.

*Mandatory All class winners are expected to walk in the Goat Parade after the shows. ****

Non-Sanctioned Milking Goat Show will be after PeeWee then the Boer Goat Show

After that show we will have the Ever-Popular Barn Yard Olympics Where Teams of 4 compete for Fabulous Prizes. It is a timed event in which each team will have to do Their "Barn Yard Chores." Best time wins fabulous prizes!!

Feed, Hay, Shavings stack em up and Water Bucket Brigade

And what about those fabulous Prizes you say?????

The prizes are the bags of feed, bales of Hay (regular and P-nut), shavings, water buckets and small trough. (Ms. Linda dragged this stuff to the show and is not going home with any of it.) So, start training now.

Other info: Plenty to do at Goat Day that is Free. Wonderful vendors. Great food. Pioneer Settlement is open for free. A great time after the show.
