Bio for Diana Jerome Pace Center for Girls

After moving to Florida from Georgia approximately 12 years ago, Diana hit the ground running by volunteering in the community, and organized the Tasty of Trinity, and ran the event for 6 years, raising over $40,000 for Seven Springs Middle School during that time.

As her son's were entering JW Mitchell High School, Diana toyed with the idea of returning to the work force. An opportunity arose at the SPCA Suncoast as the Volunteer Coordinator. While there, she grew the program from a volunteer team of 20 to 250 over 2 years.

While at the SPCA Suncoast, Diana's oldest son (Alex) was able to secure over 500 hours of community service hours, which was a key graduation component. He did a lot of dog walking, scooping, etc. Diana's path led her to secure a position with Take Stock in Children as the Mentor Coordinator, working in conjunction with the Pasco Education Foundation, and grew their mentoring program while there.

Diana has been with the Pace Center for Girls since 2018 and is honored to be their Community Engagement Manager for both the Pasco and Hernando Centers, which serves over 100 girls each year at each Center.

In her personal time, Diana enjoys playing tennis, cooking and prior to COVID, going to the movies. Now Netflix has become her new best friend. However, the most important and best part of Diana's world includes spending time with her two adult sons that keep life interesting.
