Note from the President

Club members and guests, whatever your morning drink of choice is, turn it into an enjoyable ritual. Similar to how our Tuesday lunch meetings via zoom have become a ritual for us. Buy your favorite coffee blend, or those expensive tea bags you covet, and really make a 'thing' out of preparing it. Then when it is ready, take an opportunity to sip it and savor it, enjoying the smell, the taste, and the warmth as you drink. This is a great way to be mindful and is also a useful exercise in practicing the art in other areas. Live the four way test daily.

Carla Armstrong, Director of Philanthropy at Gulfside Healthcare Services, is a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE) with more than 25 years' experience in non-profit fundraising and business sales development. She speaks locally on the topics of Hospice & Palliative Care, Legacy Planning and Community Philanthropy.

A graduate of The Juilliard School dance program, Carla first worked in arts business management while still performing professionally in New York City. Her career has included being the Associate Publisher of Stage Directions Magazine; and the Director of Corporate Giving & Sponsorship at the Straz Center for the Performing Arts in Tampa.

Now the Director of Philanthropy at Gulfside Healthcare Services, Carla is passionate about connecting people who believe in the importance of hospice with a way to support it through donations and volunteering.

Carla is currently a board member of Leadership Pasco, a board member of the Rotary Club of Wesley Chapel and a member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals. She was certified as a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE) in December 2014. In addition, Carla was Vice President of the Leadership Pasco Class of 2014 and a graduate of the Leadership Tampa Class of 2011.

Personally, Carla is proud to be a 6th generation Floridian with her husband of 18 years and her two children, ages 17 and 15. She has been a ballet/modern dance teacher and choreographer for more than 25 years. Carla is also a First Degree Black Belt in Tae Kwon Do and was a national champion at the US Open for Martial Arts in 2012 and the Battle of Atlanta in 2013.
