

Pinellas Park Employee of the Year Awards

Our Rotary Club was proud to present the 2018 City of Pinellas Park's Outstanding Employee of the Year Award. There were five outstanding nominees! Rotarian Tami Scheele introduced Shannon Coughlin, the Economic Development Manager for the Planning Department, as the Professional Services Employee of the Year.

Later in the program, Club President Joe Minarik announced that Shannon had also been selected as Pinellas Park Employee of the Year.

Rotarian David Sideri introduced Charles Williamson, the City Electrician, as the Public Works Employee of the Year.

Rotarian Tom Stewart introduced Steve Hassett, a former Swat Team member working a special assignment in the Professional Standards Office, as the Police Officer of the Year.

Rotarian David Allen introduced Chris Hammett, a Firefighter EMT, as the Firefighter of the Year.

