

Carmelita Singh-Mayer A Few Bio Notes

Carmelita is originally from British Guyana, of Indian descent. Her family moved to the USA in June of 1982 and she became a US citizen in 1986.

She completed her Associates Degree at Miami-Dade Community College, then, her Bachelors in Business Administration at Florida Atlantic University with a major in Finance.

She started her brokerage career at Northern Trust Bank and graduated from the Morgan Stanley training program in 1996. Carmelita is currently a Vice President of Investments at Wells Fargo Advisors with the designation of Accredited Asset Management Specialist.

Carmelita officially joined Rotary in 1996 in Fort Lauderdale. While serving in the Rotary Club of Fort Lauderdale, she recognized that the club had a need to be better known in the community. With her connections, she founded the “Maroone Rotary 5K Run” in 2003. That event raised the profile of Rotary in the local community.

She later moved to the Village of Estero in 2020, then joined the Rotary Club of Estero in 2021. When she joined the Rotary Club of Estero, she recognized a need for leadership. Without being asked, she enrolled in and completed the Rotary Leadership Institute program. Ready to take on a leadership role, she was then asked by Director Gordon Drawer if she would consider serving as President of the club.

Carmelita is a Paul Harris Fellow+3 recipient and supports Every Rotarian Every Year and Polio Plus.
