Mike McLain collected $$ of happiness

Mike McLain is happy to be done with Taste in 4 days. He's also happy to live in LHP with great police that caught a thief breaking into his car!

Whitney Metevia shared a road-trip story of a trip to Bushnell to attend a wedding with her friend from Canada.

Chief Licata was happy to be Police Chief in LHP where the crime statistics show that their crime rate is down 22% and crime clearance rate is at 39%.

Jay Ghanem was happy to have the guests from Trinidad and his guest in attendance.

Mike McLain is thankful to club member business' sponsors Darryl & Matt Hinkle, Jay Ghanem, Jack Prenner, Ted & Sean Hasle, Gene Pridemore, Fred MacLean Jr. & Sr., Anne Siren, & Roz Ritter.

Ken Arnold was reminded of happy memory from the 80's when he took a baseball team to Trinidad. Glad to have The San Fernando Rotary Club here visiting.

Major Wayne Adkins was grateful to now be the Pompano "Chief of Police".

Susan G. was happy to be doing the Taste and to have received so many great donations.

Toby Smith is happy to know the two Chiefs' of Police.

Kennedy Fleming, President of The San Fernando Rotary Club, was happy to be here with our club. This is their club's first visit out of Trinidad and they can see our clubs are very similar.

Heroes Are Everywhere

This photo was provided by our own Joe Usman, it shows a woman in Afghanistan amid war destruction and rubble giving a polio vaccine to a child. He was particularly impressed about the woman's dedication to go into the area with all the danger and uncertainty to continue to help vaccinate children - as Afghanistan is one of the last places we need to wipe out polio.

RLI will be held March 30th at Kaiser. Anyone with an interest in leadership roles is encouraged to attend. Speak with Sean or Joanne for more information.

Banner Exchange

President-Elect Susan Gingerich welcomed and exchanged banners with The Rotary Club of San Fernando - South.

ROTARY THEATRE

The Club was treated to a surprise performance of Shakespeare's Henry V "St. Crispian's Day Speech" in Act IV Scene iii 18-67.

Performed by:
Gloucester - Leo Bentz
Bedford - Brian McHugh
Westmoreland - Toby Smith
Salisbury - Barry Dockswell
Henry V- Tom Johnston
