DENNIS LAGAN

The World Through Private Eyes

"Private eyes, they're watching you, they see your every move"

(Daryl Hall and John Oates)

From Sam Spade to Jim Rockford to Remington Steele, America has held a decades-long fascination with the world of the private investigator. Now, thanks to member Dennis Lagan, much of what you thought you knew about the glamorous life of the "P.I." through TV and movies, will be revealed as a far cry from modern reality.

Using lively recollections and anecdotes from his 16 years as a licensed private investigator, Dennis will entertain, inform and certainly enlighten you about this fascinating profession.
