Michael Lammbrau

Insights on Korea

Assistant Professor Michael D. Lamm, known professionally as Michael Lammbrau or (마이클 램브라우) in Korean, is one of our newest faculty members to the Ridge College of Intelligence Studies and Applied Sciences.

Mr. Lamm, a Mercyhurst University class of 2006 alumnus, former US Army Intelligence Analyst, joins us after spending nearly a decade studying, living, and working in Korea. After graduating from Mercyhurst University in 2006, he enlisted in the US Army where he served as a Korean Linguist and Intelligence Professional until 2010.

He briefly worked as an Intelligence Analyst in Washington D.C. before returning to Korea in 2011 to complete his M.A. at Korea University and is now in the final stages of his Ph.D at the University of North Korean Studies.

His fluency in Korean enabled him to build on the ground experience with non-profit organizations, academic institutions, foundations, and businesses working in Inter-Korean relations on the Korean Peninsula.

He currently also works with the recently founded U.S. 501(c)3 non-profit organization, Arirang Institute, which focuses on strengthening ties in East Asia through "People to People" Diplomacy. His work in Korea, as the Seoul Bureau Chief of Arirang Institute, has resulted in grabbing the attention of the national Korean media, where they were the subject of two documentaries. He currently writes and appears for Korean news outlets as an expert on culture and Inter-Korean relations.

His current academic work focuses on the application of machine learning methods in text analysis, both supervised and unsupervised, to analyze patterns in North Korean news outlets and provide predictive modeling of North Korean provocations.

Degrees: B.A., Mercyhurst University|M.A., Korea University|Ph.D., North Korean Studies University (ABD)

This week we are happy to unveil our new Rotary Member Magnetic Badge. Note the addition of the Rotarian's business next to his/her title in an easy-to-read format and how long each Rotarian has been a member. The best news is we no longer need to order it by mail because it is made right here in Erie at Kimcopy Printing!

We are not retiring our current round badge, but if you would like a new one, the cost is $9.00.

Please email: Maryellen.dahlkemper@gmail.com with your name, organization name and your title exactly as you want it to appear on your badge.

You can pay for it when you pick it up at the meeting sign in desk or Gary Flick will bill you.

MARCH 7 • MERCYHURST UNIVERSITY

The Ethics Symposium #7 will be held on March 7th at Mercyhurst University. Volunteers are needed for registration, guides, and for facilitator – Rotarian small group discussions.

If interested in volunteering please see Stephanie Williams (wlfive74@gmail.com) or Heather Yahn (heather@HAYprojectmanager.com).
