What is the ... PAUL HARRIS FELLOW RECOGNITION

Although his intention was only to enhance his business connections and make new friends, as the founder of the first Rotary Club in Chicago in 1905, Paul Harris is recognized worldwide as a vital humanitarian. While Rotarians are generally proud of their collective accomplishments, individual donors of $1,000 or more to the Annual Programs Fund, PolioPlus, or the Humanitarian Grants Program, or people who have that amount contributed in their name, can be recognized as Paul Harris Fellows by Rotary International. Each new Paul Harris Fellow receives a commemorative certificate and a pin. The Paul Harris Fellow recognition began in 1957 with 12 Fellows named. By 2006, there were 1 million worldwide.

L.T. Briggs' 1934 writings tell us that, "Additional contributions [to the Foundation] came from various sources until the time of Paul Harris' death in 1947, when as a memorial to him, Rotarians worldwide have since contributed" toward "Paul Harris Fellow Recognition." To date, the Erie Club has produced 125 Paul Harris Fellows, many of these "repeat offenders."

In 1981, the Eric Club began the practice of naming one member a year a Paul Harris Fellow based upon their service, beginning with contemporary Club Secretary Charles Yartz (1959-60), who maintained that responsibility for over 11 years from 1968 until 1981, with the Club donating the requisite $1,000 to Rotary International on his behalf. Current Secretary and See-Way Editor Dick DeLuca was so honored on the 10th anniversary of his weekly effort in 2007.

A Note from the 2017-2018 President

Hello all!

Moving into the 2017-2018 Rotary Year there are increased opportunities for more Rotarians to be actively Engaged in the Club.

In the meantime, though, we need some volunteers to fill positions that are important to making sure our weekly meetings run smoothly. New members-this is a GREAT way to get to know fellow Rotarians and learn more about the Club.

I encourage anyone who is interested to please volunteer:
