Tom New WQLN

Tom New is president and CEO of WQLN Public Media. He is a graduate of the Art Institute of Pittsburgh, and Penn State University. He has worked in the Erie television for over almost 40 years.

Tom is married to Fran, and has two married children. He will become a grandfather in July. He worked as director of creative services for ABC affiliate WJET-TV from 1978 to 1998. He began working at WQLN in 1998. From 1986 to 1990, Tom served as president of the ABC Television Network's Northeast region's promotion advisory board.

New was the executive producer of eight documentaries produced for the Pennsylvania Public Television Network. He is a three-time winner of the Pennsylvania Association of Broadcastings award for excellence and the winner of the 2004 Erie Advertising Executive of the Year. He is passionate about Erie, and volunteers to develop community projects that educate, entertain, and (in one way or another) enhance the quality of life in the greater Erie area.

In 2006 received the Mister Rogers Neighborhood Award for creating Erie's Heritage Festival. The event included a summer pops concert with a dramatic presentation of Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture with live cannon fire and fireworks. New was the creator of Erie's Heritage Hall and the web project Ethnic Erie. For his work on these two projects he was awarded the Erie County Historical Society's President's Award in 2010.

Currently Tom is working Lake Erie Cyclefest weekend.
