Michael Colpoys

National Fuel Gas

Michael Colpoys, vice president of National Fuel Gas Distribution Corporation, the utility subsidiary of National Fuel Gas Company, has general oversight for the company's Pennsylvania division, which includes 213,000 residential and commercial customers in 14 counties across Northwestern Pennsylvania. Colpoys also is responsible for all Pennsylvania field operations for the Utility and National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation.

Colpoys started at National Fuel in 1987 as a management trainee and was named junior engineer soon after. He has held several management positions within Pennsylvania operations throughout his career, advancing to assistant vice president in 2009. Most recently, Colpoys served as vice president of National Fuel Gas Midstream Corporation and oversaw the development, construction, and operation of the Company's expanding gathering pipelines.

Colpoys received a Bachelor of Science from Clarkson University and Master of Business Administration from Penn State Erie, The Behrend College. He serves as a board member for the Pennsylvania Independent Oil and Gas Association, the Energy Association of Pennsylvania, the Erie Regional Chamber and Growth Partnership, and the 100 Club of Buffalo. He resides in Erie, Pa.
