

Charlotte Rerko

Achievement Center

Charlotte Rerko is the Chief Executive Officer of the Achievement Center – a role she began just a few months ago in April of 2017. Charlotte is an alumna of St. Alexis School of Nursing, Ursuline College and Kaplan University. She is a member of the American Psychiatric Nurses Association, the American Nurses Association, National Alliance on Mental Illness, and the American College of Healthcare Executives.

Charlotte has a variety of experience in the field of behavioral health and has served in progressive leadership roles for more than 17 years including director of behavioral health, chief clinical officer, chief operating officer and chief executive officer. chief operating officer and chief executive officer.

Charlotte's passion for humanity was kindled early-on by her interest in Clara Barton, fellow nurse and founder of the American Red Cross. Charlotte's early career as a registered nurse thrived as she worked through daily challenges presented in the Critical Care Unit, the Intensive Care Unit and the Emergency Room. As her interest in nursing seasoned, she sought new challenges to elevate her experience into leadership roles. Charlotte's expansive experience has been an asset to the Achievement Center as the agency continues to grow as a highly respected provider of therapeutic services for children and families.

The Achievement Center, founded in 1923, focuses on meeting the unique needs of children and adolescents who are experiencing emotional, physical, developmental, mental health or behavioral challenges. Through clinical expertise, a sincere love for children and a desire to help others, the talented and experienced professionals provide infants, children, adolescents, and young adults with individualized therapy to build upon their strengths.
