

Robyn Young

SafeNet

Robyn Young is the Director of Domestic Violence Services at SafeNet Domestic Violence Safety Network. Robyn has been with SafeNet for 10 years. At SafeNet Robyn functions as the Training & Community Education Coordinator, assists with grant writing, and supervises direct service counseling staff. Robyn has been coordinating the Lethality Assessment Project since it came to SafeNet in 2011. Robyn spends many hours providing training to local professionals, including colleges and police departments. Robyn moved to Erie to be closer to her family in Findley Lake New York and to join the SafeNet Team.

Prior to her work with SafeNet Robyn worked at the Clinton County Women's Center in Central Pennsylvania. At the Women's Center Robyn was the Contracts Manger and functioned as their interim Executive Director. In her position as the Contracts Manager she assisted with grant writing, trained sexual assault advocates, assisted with legal advocacy & Pro-Se Protection From Abuse Orders, and provided direct services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. Robyn was with the Women's Center for over 11 years.

Robyn has her Bachelor's Degree in Journalism/Mass Communications with an emphasis in Public Relations and a Business Management Degree from Lock Haven University.

Marci Honard is a life-long resident of Erie. She is a Villa graduate and studied Accounting and Marketing at John Carroll University and Gannon. For twenty-two years, Marci has been co-owner of Calamari's and Cali's West Catering. She is a partner of Honard Management, LLC which has managed and consulted many restaurants and private clubs in the Erie area since 2008. Marci is a board member of the Erie Downtown Partnership. She is a federal advocate for the Ovarian Cancer Research Fund and a member of The Erie Club and St. Patrick's Church. She also volunteers for many charitable organizations and heads many service projects including the "Feed the Community Thanksgiving Dinner" at Calamari's, which has served over 1200 of Erie's impoverished every year since 2010. Marci is most proud of her two amazing and accomplished daughters, Victoria and Rachel.
