Christine Riehl

Fair Districts PA

Christine Riehl is a life-long resident of Millcreek Township and was always active in the community. After the graduation of her fourth child from high school, she became a foreign service officer with the US Department of State, serving for two and a half years in Greece (including the 2004 Olympics) and two subsequent assignments in Washington as economic officer for south central Europe and special assistant to the Undersecretary for Public Diplomacy and Public Affairs (Karen Hughes). Since retiring and returning to Erie, Chris was the first coordinator of the Jefferson Education Society's Global Summit and is an active member of the JES board of directors. Chris graduated from Mercyhurst (then) College and holds an MS in Counseling Psychology from Gannon (1988) and an MPA from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government (2002). Good government and public policy have been a lifelong passion.

Don Goldstein

Fair Districts PA

Dr. Don Goldstein is retired as Professor of Economics at Allegheny College. While continuing his research on processes of corporate change, especially related to climate change, he is also active in local political and economic-development efforts. Don received a bachelor's degree from Harvard College and a doctorate from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, and has been a Fulbright Scholar abroad and a Brookings Research Fellow in Washington, DC.

Rotary Club of Erie—International Service Project 2018

This year's international service project, approved by the board, is to provide sponsorship for the public lecture by Noble Peace Laureate Jody Williams at the 2018 Peace Jam Ghana, June 28-July 1.

Target: Raise $1000 from donations by club members

This will be matched by $1000 contributed by the Rotary Club of Erie

These contributions will be matched (up to $2000) by Joyce Miller*

WEST AFRICA CENTRE FOR PEACE FOUNDATION (WACPF)

LECTURE BY NOBLE PEACE LAUREATE JODY WILLIAMS

On

Finding the Balance: Security and Human Rights in the Contemporary World

1997 Noble Peace Laureate

The 2018 PEACEJAM Ghana is a two-day, residential Youth Conference event with a public lecture featuring the Nobel Peace Laureate from America, Jody Williams - a peace activist and a driving force in the international campaign against landmines. (<http://www.peacejam.org/nobels/Jody-Williams/>)

The lecture will be attended by Rotarians, Rotaracts, government officials, security service personnel, academia, teachers and head teachers, religious groups, chiefs, civil society operatives, the media and other stakeholders, including the general public. The lecture will be on the topic "Finding the Balance: Security and Human Rights in the Contemporary World."

Donation Amount: _____

Contact Gary Flick (agflick1@neo.rr.com) to submit your donation. You can make your check out to the Scholarship Foundation of the Rotary Club of Erie (for a tax deductible donation).

* Joyce Miller, a Rotary Peace Fellow in 2012, attended the PEACE JAM GHANA conference in 2017, and saw, firsthand, the power of these conferences for youth in Ghana with respect to their acquiring leadership, as well as peace and conflict resolution skills. The WACPF, which runs these conferences, was founded by Wisdom Addo, a Rotary Peace Fellow who served in the same cohort with Joyce at the Rotary Peace Center in Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok, Thailand. Wisdom has visited Erie over the past and made presentations to our Rotary club regarding his peace work in Ghana.
