Tom Saunders

Western Pennsylvania
Conservancy

Tom Saunders is President and CEO of the Western Pennsylvania Conservancy.

The Western Pennsylvania Conservancy protects open space, conserves and restores rivers and streams, plants trees, gardens and green spaces, protects rare, threatened and endangered species, and preserves and shares Frank Lloyd Wright's Fallingwater.

Prior to his work at the Conservancy, Mr. Saunders was a land use attorney at Brobeck, Phleger and Harrison in San Francisco and Jones, Day, Reavis and Pogue in Washington, D.C., Director of the Maryland Environmental Trust, and Community Development Director of Gainesville, Florida.

Mr. Saunders has a BA from Vanderbilt University, a master's degree in Public Affairs and Urban and Regional Planning from Princeton University and a law degree from Stanford University. Mr. Saunders serves on the boards of the Pennsylvania Land Trust Association, the Land Trust Alliance, and on the national Land Trust Leadership Council.

ATTENTION MEMBERS
WITH AN INTEREST IN FRENCH LANGUAGE OR BELGIAN CULTURE:
WANT TO BUILD "GOODWILL AND BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?"

Fellow Rotarian John Evans of the Presque Isle club contacted me last week for assistance. John and his wife hosted a Youth Exchange student, Anne-Catherine Gillot, nearly 30 years ago from Belgium and they have been like family ever since (another Rotary success story!). Now they are working to assist Anne-Catherine's daughter, Alice, to come to the Erie area to attend an English-speaking high school for next year, 2019-2020. He's asked for our club's help to locate host families to facilitate the application process.

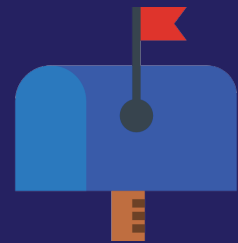

We are looking for 2-3 families (Rotarians or not) willing to host the student. It is convenient for the student if there is a host sibling in the home, but not necessary. There is nothing special required, just a bedroom for the student, meals, and a willingness to learn another culture and involve the student in day-to-day activities.

Please consider either offering to host the student for 2-3 months in your home and life or passing the idea along to friends or family who may be a good fit. Contact Kevin Hedderman with any questions at 814-440-5644, or kevin@hedderman.net
