AÄRON BLOMME

Violinist / Slavist (specialist in Eastern European Languages & Cultures)

Aäron is a performing violinist and a Regional Coordinator for Davidsfonds, the largest cultural foundation of Flanders, Belgium. His first passion is music. He picked up the violin at age six and has not let it go since. He trained under Mikhail L. Bezverkhny (1976 First Prize Winner of the Queen Elisabeth Competition) and Olga Zolotareva at the Royal Conservatory of Ghent, Belgium.

In 2008 Aäron received the Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholarship that enabled him to study under renowned violinist, Prof. Viktor A. Pikayzen (People's Artist of Russia) at the Moscow P.I. Tchaikovsky Conservatory, Russia. Aäron has performed as a soloist with multiple ensembles and orchestras, gaining musical experience in Belgium, the Netherlands, Norway, France, USA, Canada, Russia and Morocco. Aäron is the co-creator of Remembrance through Music & Emotions, a multimedia event in which he co-composed and performed a soundtrack to the events of WWI. Premiering in 2014 in his native home of Flanders' Fields to commemorate the beginning of WWI, Remembrance exemplifies the message of international understanding, intercultural goodwill and world peace.

As a former Rotaractor and now Rotarian, Aäron is committed to be the inspiration through music and culture!

ZACHARY COVINGTON

Baritone Soloist and Executive Director, Barrow-Civic Theatre

Zachary joined the BCT Family as the Executive Director in 2015, after a 15-year career in choral and theatre education in the public school system. He has also been seen on stage or in the director's seat for several theatre productions since 1997. Some of his favorite performances include Handel's: Messiah (Soloist, Director), The Secret Garden (Dr. Craven), Titanic (Music Director), Forever Plaid & Plaid Tidings! (Smudge), Children of Eden (Father), Songs For A New World (Man 2), Drowsy Chaperone (Director) and Les Misérables (Javert).

In addition to serving as the Executive Director at the Barrow-Civic Theatre, Zachary sings in church choir, directs the praise team The Messengers, owns and operates Covington Performing Arts Studio, serves as Founder and Artistic Director for The Clarion County Festival Choir, is the Director for the Clarion Community Choir and enjoys spending time on the Clarion River. Premiering in 2014 in his native home of Flanders' Fields to commemorate the beginning of WWI, Remembrance exemplifies the message of international understanding, intercultural goodwill and world peace.
