Golf Classic Beneficiaries

This year's primary beneficiary will be the Cooper-Siegel Community Library. The library serves residents in the Fox Chapel Area School District communities. The library's mission is to cultivate a community of lifelong learners by providing high quality resources, programs, and services that foster education, inspiration, enjoyment, and shared knowledge. The Rotary also supports other charitable organizations within the Fox Chapel Area School District boundaries.

Past Rotary Golf Classic Beneficiaries include Circles of Sharpsburg, Aspinwall Meals on Wheels, All of Us Care, Backpacks for Hunger, Audubon Society of Western PA, Camp Guyasuta, St. Margaret Foundation Bed Fund, Cooper-Siegel Library, Family Worship Center Meals, FCAHS-Student Support Services, and area food banks.

The Rotary Club of Fox Chapel Area

Formed in 1971, the Rotary Club of Fox Chapel Area (www.clubrunner.ca/foxchapelarea) is a proud member of Rotary International (www.rotary.org) that has 32,000 similar clubs and 1.2 million members worldwide.

Our motto is "Service Above Self". Community service projects are a primary focus of all Rotary Clubs, while we also contribute significantly to international goals ranging from providing clean water in Central America to leading worldwide actions to eradicate polio.

The Rotary Club of Fox Chapel Area meets most Wednesdays at 11:45 am at the Pittsburgh Field Club. Guests and prospective members are always welcome.
