Q&A

Tourism

National 911 Memorial trail- the Lower trail. Ground zero to the Pentagon. Jim introduced a caucus to prepare for the 25th Anniversary in 5 years. A Canal basin crossover to Hollidaysburg is being considered. Systemic challenges to getting things done in Harrisburg. Bipartisan bills, the governor wouldn't work with the legislature. Don't know what changes that climate. Jim proposed The John Gority bill to increase the stipend for blind/ disabled veterans. There is so much headline making that will never go anywhere. Phil Dubrow noted complaints from viewers regarding unemployment office, backlog of 50 to 75 to get through to unemployment. There has been unprecedented fraud.

February 8 Meeting

The 4-way test contest will be next week. Please come early so we can start promptly at 12:10

Speaker:

Anthony "Sonny" Consiglio, Society of St. Vincent de Paul Altoona-Johnstown Diocese Executive Director. Sonny shared the history of the society, when in 1830 France a young man was challenged with how he was putting his faith in action. After that question he went on to begin gathering bread for the needy from those who had to give. Sonny gave an overview of the services available, including the thrift stores, food pantries, Food for Families kitchens and financial support for those in need.

February 15 Meeting

We will be kicking off our scholarships next week. Deb Delaposta shared her thanks to the volunteers for Grapes for Good as well as the sponsors. Over $35,000 was raised.

Any good news

Lisa Hann noted that Hayden Hann was sworn in as a Logan township police officer last week..

Speaker:

Today is our Four Way Test Speech Contest. George Foster and Traci took turns introducing our 3 contestants. Our winners were Abby, Danielle And Ava, from AASD.

February 22 Meeting

We welcomed new member Deb Flaig and Tim Morder's guest, Kent Walter

Speaker- Doug Harbach from The Pennsylvania gaming control board. Doug spoke of the history of the PGCB, what they do and do not oversee and the future of gaming in PA. No taxpayer expense is involved. They have a 7-member board and a staff of 290. They oversee land-based casinos, Fantasy games, mini-casinos, sports wagering, iGaming, and VGIs

February 1 Meeting

February 29th our Rotary blood drive will be at the convention center. We received another Thank you from the veteran's home. James Shepherd was inducted into Rotary. Phil Dubrow announced his daughter is engaged to Joe Hurd's son Jodi Cessna announced her daughter is engaged. Jodi, Pat Savage, Joe Hurd was honored in the Pennsylvania business central as 100 top people. Neal Ruddell's is son getting married. The Hall of fame dinner is going to occur at the convention center

Speaker:

Traci introduced Jim Gregory State Representative in the 80th district. He updated us on what's going on in Harrisburg. Redistricting is more of a conversation right now. State Supreme Court would go from 14/6 republicans to 9/9.
