As most of you know, Rotary International is the group leading the World in the quest to eradicate Polio from the face of the Earth. Steve Seltzer plans to represent our Club in the Pedal-Out-Polio event on May 11th. Each of us can join Steve as virtual riders by making a donation.

The Altoona Library Books Sale is 4/26,27 and 4/29.

Program; Frank Rosenhoover introduced our speaker, Kathrine Muller Kathy gave an overview of Different Values/Different Rules, excerpts from her presentations on Bridges Out of Poverty. She discussed the importance of recognizing that people from direct economic backgrounds may struggle with knowing the "rules" of middle class expectations. As employers it is beneficial to understand what your employee values, the framework from which they operate and the impact they feel they have on their own future. She described the different resources that individuals coming from poverty may not have, aside from not having money and the deficits that may hold people back. To learn more go to AHAProcess.com

Jason Ebersole shared that his daughter, Haley, organized a fundraiser at LaRoche University benefitting The Children's Institute of Pittsburgh. Her efforts resulted in an offer of an internship.. Way to go Haley!

Program; Marea Mannion introduced out speaker, Herman Nagle, Author & Historian

Herman gave excerpts from the history of his family and information from several local history books he has written. He shared tales of his great grandfather losing a leg on the Portage Railroad tunnel, his family's involvement in the mail cleanup of the Red Arrow wreck, letters saved by Dear Aunt Rose that were exchanged with her brothers and nephews during WWI and WWII. We learned that Rick Hockenos played with the Red Flash in 1974 against Notre Dame at the Jaffa Mosque and many other interesting Blair County facts. If you would like to know more, many of Mr. Nagle's publications can be found on Amazon and scrapbooks are available at the Blair County Genealogy Society.
