Visiting with us today was Kate Shaffer's guest, Joe DeFrancesco, Director of Baker Mansion.

Rotary District Secretary Susanna Tomlinson also visited and reminded us of this year's theme, Rotary Connecting the World.

We had the opportunity to view a video entitled "Drop to Zero" the focus of the video was polio eradication. If you missed the video, President Phil will post it on our website for you to view.

Rotary foundation dinner tickets are available for $10. You could win prizes!

Good News or Events to share;
Lisa Hann shared that there will be a yard sale at the Teen Center on 8/17 from 8-12 with something for everyone.

Program

Our speaker, Eric D. Palmer, Director of GACTC shared a presentation on The Critical Role of the Career and Technology Center in Building Stronger Communities. The GACTC offers 27 different programs, serves 8 schools and 1,000 students. Adults are eligible for grants and loans to attend.

The average age of skilled tradespersons is 57. 10 million new skilled tradespersons will be needed in the future. Eric talked about the stigma of Votech and what we must do to discourage that stigma. For more information go to www.gactc.edu

Visiting with us today Marea Mannion's brother, Joel.

Our newest Rotarian to be, Carmella Rose Michelone also joined us with her parents Mandy and Chris.

Rotary foundation dinner tickets are available for $10. You could win prizes!

Our District Governor, Swan Stall, will be visiting on September 10th. Please make sure to attend!

Good News or Events to share;
Tim Balconi shared that UPMC for Dental Care has moved to the B building.

Program

President Phil introduced our speaker, Steve McKnight, CEO of ABCD Corp. Steve shared on "First Frontier; their new branding idea. The First Frontier Blair County evolved from a strategic planning session in 2016 that made it clear that we need to attract new talent to our community. Factors effecting Blair County include; retirement boom, labor pool shrinking, greater mobility/investor/personal, major generational shifts. What makes a place great? An authentic experience, livability, real stories, people connected/rooted. What is our unique story? Check out Pennsylvania Allegheny Mountains, The First Frontier by Dave Hurst.
