Program:

Phil introduced Jim Snyder, retired from Norfolk Southern and now heading up the Blair County Genealogical Society. Jim gave us a "walking tour" through slides, of the Roller Hojeth Memorial Library.

The facility was made possible through a one million dollar bequeath from Mr. Roller, who was a teacher from Williamsburg with no heirs. Jim shared that the internet has reduced use of the library. An Open House is scheduled for November 3, 2019. The Society has acquired the Hoenstine collection with 2800 volumes, Altoona yearbooks to 1909, Deeds 1846-2005 and The Altoona Tribune 1856-1859. Notebooks are color coded to help you find what you are looking for easily and there are helpful volunteers to assist you! For more information go to bcgslibrary.org

Jason Ebersole welcomed Rotarians with guests. Cherryie Wisyanski introduced her guest and potential new member, Megan Jones.

Phil reminded us of our soup kitchen commitment. The schedule is on our website.

President Phil shared that today is World Polio Day and in recognition of our participation, a group "selfie" was taken that will be shared with the District. The club has purchased tickets to Sister Paula's soup and bread fundraiser. They are available to all members. A quilting shop hop will be taking place in Blair County. See Christy Collins for more details.

Program:

Jason Ebersole introduced our speaker Lou C. Schmitt Jr., State Representative for the 79th District. Lou shared his experiences as a freshman representative, describing how he acquired an aisle seat, was assigned to the transportation committee and ended up chairing the sub-committee on railroads, all unheard of for freshman representatives. Lou spoke of how freshman learn the ropes, by being assigned to a more senior member. His decision-making model came from a senior member who advised him to remember the 3 C's, vote your conscience, constituents and caucus. Lou makes time to see all those who wish to meet with him. He continues to operate a side job and serves as an arbitration chair for FINRA.
