Message from the Secretary

The past few months, I have seen a drop in attendance at our meetings. If you haven't been at one lately, you're missing out, not only on interesting programs and good lunches but entertaining videos on famous birthdates and this day in history from President Phil. Meetings start at noon and we're out no later than 1:15.

Area Governor Susanna Tomlinson joins us today, as well as past DG, Kelly Wike.

Deb Dellaposta shared that we are on target for Grapes for Good to be a sold-out event. Grant applications are coming in.

Scott Magnetti introduced Rotarians with guests; Cherryie Wisyanski's guest is Joe Harteis, Rex Kaup's guest is Ed Murceak.

Phil shared a video on an update on polio.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM 01/28 & 02/04

The District Conference this year is in Gettysburg in April.

February 11th is the 4-way speech contest. We will begin at 11:45.

Scott Magnetti is the new owner of local FedEx trucks.

Program:

Kelly Wike was with us today to talk about Shelter Box. She recognized our donation of $6,000 toward the project. The Boxes are serving around the world in places such as, Ethiopia, Philippines, Syria, Bangladesh, Niger and other locations where disasters have struck. A full shelter box costs $1,000 and contains a tent that can sleep approximately 10 people and other items as needed. These items are specific to the need of the people and location and can include a stove, liners, scarves, gloves, blankets, hat, mosquito nets, tools, water filters, water jug, luminoids, dishes, spoons, pots & pans and a children's kit that may include chalk, paper, pens, a doll etc.. Shelter Box ambassadors Barb Morgan and Juli Mingle joined us as well. Kelly answered many questions and encouraged us to continue to support the Shelter Box project at whatever level we were comfortable with.

Jodi Cessna welcomed Rotarians with guests. Rex Kaup introduced his guest Ed Murceak.

President Phil reminded us of our soup kitchen schedule.

Paula Foreman shared information on the scholarship campaign. This is our 21st year. Applications have been distributed to the schools.

The District Conference this year is in Gettysburg in April. February 11th is the 4-way speech contest. We will begin at 11:45, please be here by 11:30.

Congratulations to our members recognized as the top 100 influential people in PA Business Central; Deb Dellaposta, Pat Savage, Joe Hurd and Jodi Cessna and to Ryan Shellenberger for his recognition as Foremost under 40.

Neil Rudel shared that the Altoona Mirror will be recognizing leaders under 40, so please make nominations.

Tom Smith shared that the Veterans Home is accepting coats and calendars.

Program:

Don Ruggery introduced our speaker, Keith Eldred. Keith took early retirement from New Pig after 29 years and is now assisting his wife, Janet, with her work at the Hollidaysburg Library. Janet was diagnosed a few years ago, with dementia and tests show early onset Alzheimer's, which is currently kept at bay with medication. Keith and Janet have been married 30 years, have 3 children and 3 grandchildren. While building the new library, Janet began having memory issues and seizures. Her diagnosis lead Keith to make new choices and to launch a writing project to raise 1 million dollars for "Janet's Library." His project "Thisis.red" and his book Rubrum (red in Latin) are just the beginning of his creative endeavors. To support Keith and Janet's efforts or to find out more, go to www.thisis.red
