Message from the Secretary

The past few months, I have seen a drop in attendance at our meetings. If you haven't been at one lately, you're missing out, not only on interesting programs and good lunches but entertaining videos on famous birthdates and this day in history from President Phil. Meetings start at noon and we're out no later than 1:15.

George Foster welcomed our guests and their parents and gave a brief history of the 4 Way Speech Contest. Speeches were given by Altoona High School students Abby Smeerman, Don Kennedy and Danielle Mueller. Each student shared a little about themselves and their future goals. First, second and third place cash awards were given.

Announcements:

Larry Savino- Thanked club members for their support of Brews & Blues

Phyllis Baker- 200+ attended the valentine dance hosted at they Y with over 100 free tickets provided to non-profits. The Easter event will be occurring in April.

Jodi Cessna welcomed our Rotarians with guests, Pat Savage's guest was Tommi Burchfield of Grane Hospice. Deb Dellaposta's guest was Lucia Perez, intern and Sheetz Fellow.

President Phil reminded us of our soup kitchen commitments.

Grapes for Good has 50 grant applications. The event is 2/29 from 6-10pm.

The District Conference is in Gettysburg, April 17-19. Let President Phil know if you plan to attend.

Rotary Scholarship pledge forms are on the tables and will come out via email. Commitments are needed by April 7th and we are expecting 100% participation regardless of the amount.

Announcements:

Jason Ebersole shared that his daughter is interning as a grant writer and just obtained a $200,000 grant for the company she is interning with.

Presentation:

Speakers today are Sheetz Fellow, Velanna Skripek and Donna Bon of Penn State Altoona. Together they shared the requirements and benefits of being in the Sheetz Fellows Program. Velanna is a business, marketing and management fellow and shared her benefit from the 1:1 attention and opportunities that are provided through the program. Forty students are accepted and benefits include $3K toward a 10-day education abroad experience, $10k scholarship during the senior year, one-on-one interaction with Steve Sheetz, a mentor to aid professional growth, networking with community and business leaders, participation in a national conference, recognition as a Sheetz Fellow, real-world projects and a resume that distinguishes you from the competition. For more information contact Donna Bon at djb36@psu.edu
