Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

We have further determined you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in section 509(a)(3).

You are not liable for social security (FICA) taxes unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. You are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

If your purposes, character, or method of operation is changed, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

(Over)

Form L-178 (Rev. 8-73)

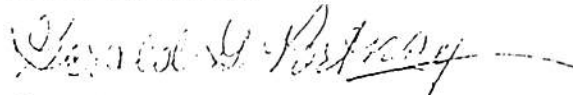

If your gross receipts each year are normally more than $5,000, you are required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, for failure to file a return on time.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Please keep this determination letter in your permanent records.

Sincerely yours,

Gerald G. Portney
District Director

Your tax-exempt status is predicated upon the understanding that your funds are distributed solely for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, or to the Federal Government, or to a State or local government for a public purpose. Evidence to substantiate the exempt nature of your distributions should therefore be maintained in such a manner as to satisfy these requirements.

The effective date of this determination is October 4, 1974.

If distributions are made to individuals, case histories regarding the recipients should be kept showing names, addresses, purposes of awards, manner of selection, relationship if any to members, officers, trustees or donors of funds to you, in order that any and all distributions made to individuals can be substantiated upon request by the Internal Revenue Service. (Revenue Ruling 56-304, Cumulative Bulletin 1956-2, page 306.)

The McLean Rotary Club Foundation was founded on March 2, 1971, by The McLean Rotary Club in order to further the Club's goals for charitable giving, granting financial assistance to students, or to finance a community service project. Said Foundation has the approval of Rotary International and its blessing.

To date, the Foundation has received the net proceeds of two Rotary Club auctions. These have been deposited in a savings account in a local bank and a small amount of interest has been earned thereon. The present objective is to encourage Rotary members and their friends to channel part of their charitable contributions into the Foundation.

Perhaps, the best method of describing the objectives of the Foundation is to cite an example. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1974, The McLean Rotary Club undertook to obtain $5,000.00 as initial funds to start a group foster home in McLean for boys of Fairfax County who could not live at home. These boys are under the jurisdiction of the Fairfax County Juvenile Court. This was done with the assistance and direction of appropriate employees of Fairfax County, Virginia. Said funds were actually raised.

The purpose of the Foundation, which is separate from The McLean Rotary Club, is to have funds available to be used to initiate projects such as the one described above in the future. Simply stated, the Foundation will enable the accumulation of sufficient resources to give financial meaning to the Rotary Club's motto, "Service above self".

The present directors are going to undertake a significant fund raising campaign as soon as the charitable deduction status is established.

Re: AU:FAI:1130:GLW

Dear Mr. Wilmer:

At long last I am hopefully enclosing the necessary information to complete the tax exemption for the McLean Rotary Club Foundation, Inc.

To date, the proceeds of two public auction which have been held by the McLean Rotary Club, are the only source of income for the Foundation, and to date no expenses have been incurred.

The physical year of the McLean Rotary Club will be February 28.

In accordance with your request, we are enclosing the statement that the Foundation is not a private Foundation and also the correction in the amendment of the Articles of Incorporation.

I am also enclosing a copy of our Identification Number, as well as a copy of the incorporation of the Rotary Club of McLean.

I sincerely hope that these documents will enable you to complete your file as required.

Sincerely yours,

R. Roland Showalter
