

June 10, 2008

David Coyle

Today's Meeting

All Happy Rotarians

"Cherry Baumbusch Home from Dubai & Extended Happy Talk"

TEST YOUR
Rotary I.O.U.
McLean Rotary FUN Befuddler

The US Supreme Court ruled that "Rotary is a business according to California law, and therefore cannot exclude women." Rotary Intl. president then ruled that Rotary would not enforce the "male only" clause, where such laws do exist.

What was the year?

All answers can be found online in the "History of the Rotary Club of McLean."

The answer for today's Befuddler: 1981 was the year

Visiting Rotarians

Berrin Cubukcuoglu,

Rotary Club of Gayrettepe-Isawbul, Turkey

Kutlu Cubukcuoglu, Rotary Club of

Besikus-Istanbul, Turkey

Michael Keber, Rotary Club of Reston

David Danner, Rotary Club of Tysons Corner

Alan Bazzaz, Rotary Club of Lake Oswego

Guests

Letty Tahan, guest of Celia Ford

Najwa guest of Tamara Mitchell

Clarissa Leonard, guest of John Leonard

Sarah Armstong, guest of Scott Mills

Last Meeting

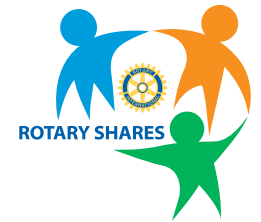

John Foust, Dranesville Supervisor

John briefed the club about changes coming to Tysons Corner, including higher real estate density and construction of Metro without federal funding.

Announcements

Installation Night June 27, 6:00 pm at the McLean Community, rsvp June 16th.

Upcoming Speakers

June 17, 2008

Frank Peterson

"Partners for Surgery in Guatemala"

Happy Talk

The Club obliged but wondered why we sang the alma mater of Cornell for our song? Mike Delarosa was happy about today's barbecue feast and proud that he did not get any on his shirt. Doug Megil reported that the Florida Gators women's softball team once again lost in a tournament. Pastor Bob has a new appreciation of scotch after attending the taste of ScottLand fund-raiser. Bob Rosenbaum offered to help Bob Hahne with his house painting chores by bringing a toothbrush. Vance Zavella was happy Diana will be singing the National Anthem at the "Big Trains" baseball game. Paul Ward was happy not to be the Sgt. at Arms very often because he is mathematically challenged.

Rotary District 7610 Club of the Year