William Reed and David Coyle

Today's Meeting

Our distinguished speaker today will be Rotarian

Keith Argrow

The topic of his presentation is

"Forest Fire Towers, the Lighthouse of the Land."

The Four-Way Test

In 1932, Rotarian Herbert J. Taylor created The Four-Way Test, a code of ethics adopted by Rotary 11 years later.

The test, asks the following questions:

Of the things we think, say or do

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Guests

Thamir Alhashimi, a guest of Ed

Last Meeting

Speaker for the day was Cynthia Brown Vice director of "Green Spring Gardens" She described the many activities of the garden and the desirability of visiting for it's many attractions.

President Frank discussed the responsibilities of the board: fiscal integrity and policy setting. Consequently he has assigned a task force to address the problems of members who very seldom attend sometime for long periods and that of the continued late payment of dues. After some study a discussion will be held by the membership and opinions rendered back to the task force.

Announcements

The GSE team from Jamaica will be in the area from April 18 – 22. Bob Hahne asked us to contribute to the RI Foundation early and often. Please register for the District Conference at Kingsmill Resort in Williamsburg from April 29 through May 2. The installation dinner for next year's officers will take place on July 8.
