P.O. Box 561 • McLean, VA 22101

MEETINGS: TUESDAYS - NOON

Location: Lutheran Church of the Redeemer
1545 Chain Bridge Rd., McLean, VA 22101

Today's Meeting

Today, the McLean Rotary Club will host the welcome members of the Varsity Football teams from McLean HS and Langley HS. The program will feature the players and coaches from the schools, sharing insights into the upcoming Rotary Cup Challenge between the Highlanders (McLean) and Saxons (Langley). The Rotary Cup Challenge is scheduled for November 5th @ 7:30 p.m. at Langley HS. Please come out and support the teams and bring a friend!

Rotary Information Corner

(aka, How do you eat an elephant?)

Q: What Rotary Foundations are supported by our McLean club?

A: See Next Week's Bulletin

Guests

Dana Sippel introduced McLean accountant Doug Duncan
Wayne Sharp, President of McLean Orchestra

Last Meeting

The McLean Orchestra's brass quintet performed a number of songs including the theme from Pink Panther and the Beatles' "When I'm 64." Executive Director John Huling said that the 80-member orchestra raises funds to support itself and also the McLean Youth Orchestra. Some of the funds supporting the youth orchestra fund scholarships for students who cannot afford music lessons. The first concert for the main orchestra is a Halloween pops concert on October 30 and the first concert for the youth orchestra is December 12.

Announcements

Bob Hahne said the financial goal for Stop Hunger Now is largely reached. Now he needs foremen to monitor the youngsters who will be assembling meals on November 6.

Jan Auerbach announced that virtually all volunteer slots for Monte Carlo Night have been filled.

Doug Megill and Dana Sippel noted great progress on obtaining sponsorships and silent auction items, respectively, but there is still time to get more of both.

Bob Rosenbaum said the object of Rotary is listed in this week's brochure and that it stresses service.
