Last Meeting

John Foust of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors for the Dranesville District provided the club with an area update.

Announcements:

Bob Hahne called for club volunteers for the June 11 Stop Hunger Now event. He expects a total of 600 volunteers during the event. He was pleased that Friday's Stop Hunger Now dinner was attended by 80 persons.
He challenged the club to raise another $500 to support the drive.

Bob also reported that our club is now a 100% Paul Harris Fellow Club for the 4th year in a row.

President Glen announced the July 7th dinner and celebration for the incoming officers.

Upcoming Speakers

Happy Talk

Pamela Danner was happy that John Foust was updating us today on the Dranesville District activities. Todd Dempsey was delighted to cede his duties back to the returning Sam Agarwal.
Tom Mangan happily spent the weekend in Lancaster, PA for his grandson's little league tournament, where he soaked up some of the area's Amish culture. Rick Neldon was happy that his oldest daughter has just graduated from the National Massage Institute and passed the required exam with flying colors. Vance Zavela was happy to have just returned from the Rotary International convention in New Orleans.
Jan Auerbach was happy that Todd Dempsey has done a fantastic job chairing the by-laws committee. Bob Hahne was pleased that $12,000 was raised for Children's Hospital Leukemia Research. Jeff announced that the Great Falls Rotary club now has 84 members and was having its kickoff breakfast meeting this week.
